Culture Club Meeting
An interesting meeting of the Woman's Culture Club was held last evening in the club room of the Carnegie Free Library. The meeting opened at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. W. P. Schoon over presiding. The program was one of extraordinary interest, several very entertaining papers being read. The attendance was unusually large.

At the conclusion of the business session the program for the evening was taken up and exceptionally well carried out. The subject for study this year is "Italy," and the program last evening was in charge of the Civic Committee, with Mrs. J. M. Young reading an interesting sketch of "General Italian History" followed by a general talk on "Civic Work" by Mrs. F. O. Goodwin. Mrs. Katherine Wakefield read a very instructive paper on "Festivals." Mrs. Mary Scott read a paper on "Leisure Hours of the Young People." Mrs. Scott spoke of the various amusements that were more popular and uplifting to the young people and said "that the time had passed when leisure was considered an idleness." The program closed with two very pleasing piano solos rendered by Mrs. A. B. Morton and Miss Rebecca Sauter.

Mrs. Margaret Watt of Dunbar and Mrs. R. S. McKee of New Haven were new members received making a membership of about 75. The meeting throughout was one of great interest and was largely attended. The next meeting will be held Monday evening November 2, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Carnegie Free Library. The subject is "Venice."

Reception for Pastor.

In honor of his return to Connellsville as pastor of the United Brethren church, Rev. A. L. Funk and his family were tendered a reception last evening at the parsonage on Crawford Avenue by about 40 members of the congregation. The affair was in the form of a surprise gathering and the hearty welcome given Rev. Funk and his family showed that their return to Connellsville was very pleasing to the congregation. Rev. Funk has entered upon his second year as pastor of the United Brethren church and during his stay the congregation has increased and the church is rapidly building up. The evening was spent in a delightful social manner until after 10 o'clock when an elegant luncheon was served.

Hopeworth League Cabinet Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Hopeworth League Cabinet of the Methodist Episcopal church was held last evening at the home of Miss Gertrude Clegg on First Street, New Haven. All members were present and the meeting was a very enjoyable one. Two new members were admitted to the league and preliminary arrangements were made for a lecture to be held in November. A delightful social hour and dainty refreshments followed the business session.

Veterans Attending Reunion.

Henry Kunkel, J. R. Budsley, E. J. White, C. H. Whistler, W. P. Clark, Stewart Dublin, of Connellsville, William Atkinson of Vanderbilt, Fred Martin, of Brecknock, Harry Bivers of Youngwood; Samuel Wilson of Smithfield, William Shisher of Canonsburg, W. S. Lohr of Scottdale, and James Stanton of New Stanton composed a party of veterans who went to Berlin this morning to attend the reunion of the 122nd Regiment, Pennsylvania Infantry.

Entertained Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. W. P. Clark is entertaining the Ladies' Aid Society this afternoon at her home on Crawford Avenue in honor of her house guest, Mrs. J. O. Seaton of Philadelphia, and a former resident of Connellsville.

Woman's Guild Will Meet.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Guild of the Trinity Episcopal church, New Haven, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:40 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Frank Graham on the South Side. A large attendance is desired.

Will Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hyatt will entertain the I. X. I. Club this evening at her home on Patterson Avenue.

TAX COLLECTOR IS AFTER DELINQUENTS.

Commitments Will Be Issued for Many Within Next Few Days.
Is Effective Method.

Tax Collector George B. Brown has commenced activities in getting back taxes. He has again resorted to the method of issuing commitments for delinquents, usually a most effective method of bringing them to terms.

Within the next two or three days it is expected that a hundred or more of these will be issued by the Tax Collector. A number are already out and some results have been obtained.

Yesterday Chief of Police Rottler approached a citizen at the Baltimore & Ohio depot. The chief held a conference in his hand.

"You'll have to come along with me said the chief.

"Can't do it now" was the astonished response. "I'm waiting for a train."

It didn't take the chief long to impress upon the delinquent's mind that a commitment is of more importance than making a train. The gentleman seated, although he begged over the costs for several minutes.

TWENTY MEN LEND AID TO SAVE HORSE.*When Animal Hovered Near Precipice Team and Workmen Drag It Back to Safety

Contractor John Evans and his crew of twenty men lost a valuable horse yesterday afternoon when it fell over the embankment along Crawford Avenue leading into Connell's Mills several hundred feet below. Evans is doing some grading on Crawford Avenue property and the horse stepped over the edge while rounding a turn and came to a stop.

The animal tumbled down several feet but kept his footing. He hovered dangerously near the brink of a sharp precipice and the workmen, who had been sent to help him, were forced to retreat.

A southern once was heard to use in the course of a shaggy description the expressions "dog bite 'em," "goat all day," "dad it 'em" and "jumpin' geese white."

From a man who lives in one of the houses built by the company he said, "I never seen these expressions before, but I know what they mean."

A Parisian is responsible for the expression "sacrificial polygamy," the meaning of which is not exactly known. Many Frenchmen swear by it.

Many Americans swear by "goat."

ADVERTISING.
THE DAILY COURIER has double the circulation of any other daily newspaper in Fayette county or the Connellsville coke region and it is better distributed for the general advertising than any paper which prints such week sworn statements of circulation.

THE WEEKLY COURIER is the recognized organ of the Connellsville coke trade. It has especial value as an industrial journal and an advertising medium for such interests.

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 20, 1908.

BETTER THE LIFE-GIVING RAIN.

The continuing forest fires have not only destroyed much valuable timber, but they have also made a very smoky and disagreeable atmosphere, which is at some times and in some sections almost insupportable.

We are accustomed to smoke in this country, but not smoke of this kind. The smoke of our coke ovens is more endurable physically and financially. It is the smoke of industry and prosperity; the smoke of the forest fires smarts the eyes, irritates the lungs and is injurious to property as well as to person.

The political situation presents similar conditions but better prospects. An industrial drought began last fall but it has been relieved by occasional showers of confidence, and will doubtless be entirely broken on November 3d, next, by a copious rain of Republican votes.

But if the dead leaves and withered branches and dry grass of Bryanites are ignited by the fool voters who want to meddle with the future we may expect a pungent, acrid and suffocating business atmosphere accompanied by physical distress and universal suffering.

Better the refreshing and life-giving rain in either case.

THE DELAY IN THE RINEHART CASE.

Through the persistent and perhaps perfidious efforts of a Pittsburgh newspaper more noted for sensationalism than for sound common sense the President has been petitioned for the summary trial of J. B. F. Rinehart, late Cashier of the now defunct and hopelessly wrecked Farmers & Traders Bank of Waynesburg and the Plaintiff so far headed the request as to direct the Department of Justice to bring the case to speedy trial.

United States District Attorney John W. Dunkle has been bound, his motives impugned and his character attacked because of the delay in bringing Rinehart to trial, but the letters and other evidence he has submitted to the court show, in the language of Judge Young, that he "has done every thing in his power to expedite the case."

The Rinehart case should be tried but the effort to expedite it should be directed against those who have been negligent in their duties, and not against the District Attorney, who has proved his entire faithfulness.

THE VOICE OF DESPAIR.

Franklin Bryan says the Democrats are only asking for $100,000 to finish their campaign and the Republicans are asking a million.

The Republicans might as well ask for a million as for one-tenth that sum. It's no harm to ask. Bryan himself is asking to be made President. He is asking a great deal more than the Republicans.

"What do they want with a million?" asks Bryan; and then answers his own question by saying that they must want it for the purpose of corrupting the voters. There is no foundation for this charge. It is merely another Democratic insinuation. Modern Democracy seems to run in bounds. It has apparently run out of everything else.

The appearance of this charge is new. It has been made before, and is easily recognizable as the voice of Despair.

THE LESSON OF BROWNSVILLE.

The committee in charge of the Connellsville Republican meeting can profit by the experience of the Brownsville Republicans. The delay in the trials and the consequent delay in the parade made the speaking begin so late that some of the orators were heard but briefly and others not at all.

The enlivening music, the glitter and glory, the panoply and pageantry of the parade are useful adjuncts in politics; but the speakers appeal to the intelligence of the people, and the speakers should never be crowded out when they have truth and logic on their side with which to combat ignorance and error. Ox-roasts and picnics and diversions of that sort will do very well for the Bryanites, because their political claims will not bear close inspection; but the Republican policies cannot be too fully discussed or too forcibly presented. The better this work is done the bigger the Republican majorities will be.

The Connellsville Republicans have a lively appreciation of this fact and they have determined to start their parade promptly at the appointed hour and conclude it in plenty of time for every speaker on the program to be fully heard.

All signs point to a rousing meeting Saturday evening, one of which Connellsville may well be proud. We cannot expect the Democrats to join in making the affair a success, but all who want to hear political truths expounded are cordially invited.

Ex-Boss Croker, late of Tammany Hall, now an Englishman of estate, thinks that in New York politics nothing is worse than the Tammany Fund. When Tammany Hall supports a candidate it expects him to put Tammany before the Constitution. The Standard Oil Trust is on record as expressing similar sentiments. Both are suspected of having done some bargaining in this campaign. Tammany is supporting Bryan openly, the Standard secretly. The latter, we're informed, three days ago, secretly became a large producer of silver. Bryan has always been for the Silver Kings. Why shouldn't the Silver Kings be for Bryan?

A little laughter now and then is excellent for the best of men.

It will be a sad day for the nation when its politics are abandoned to the politicians.

Taft's voice has given out. Does hasn't any, it is clear, and there is not even a whisper of a chance that he will ever be heard again. His voice is sometimes hoarse and other times a masterpiece. Bryan's voice has both fortitude and inflection. It has accumulated more and more weight, but has lost him some opportunity. There is even a tinge of talking overmuch.

Superstition is a relic of barbarism.

The labor vote is balking on tiresome. It doesn't like the whip or horse.

Ability may plan, but it is energy that does things.

Shooting wild ducks at midnight is a new and most sporty pastime to Connellsville. Hitherto the bagging of them particular now of the day has been confined to those who surreptitiously sought the roosting hen-coop varieties.

The average newspaper wrongs nobody consciously nor sets a gulf down in malice.

"The Light that Failed" is receiving the earnest attention of the Town Council.

When athletes doublette education the tail is wagging the dog and the animal's bones are in a wharf.

The Boy Scout means argue that while wages under a Republican administration and the outcome of midwest in middle west in the cost of living went even higher, but it has not been argued that the American workingmen are getting less. In fact, the workingmen wages are increasing. The American workingmen are getting more, but they do not pay will vote for Taft. There is no middle ground. The logic of this argument is inescapable. Workingmen will vote for Bryan and the Protection Tariff and Standard Wage and a Protective Tariff and Liberal Wage.

The corrupt election officer is frequently a traitor to his party as well as to his constituency.

Scottish's Continental Sabbathists are more profitable than any other.

In politics the candidate needs all the friends he can get, but there are some people whose vanity is prettier than others.

Tax Collector Brown has engaged the service of the officers of the law in the collection of taxes from the citizens of Pittsburg of being more desirous than moderate than unfortunate.

Virtue needs encouragement. It treats a thorny path.

Judge Van Swearingen successfully played the part of the blessed nonconformist in court yesterday. The contestants were the people. Other than that he set a good example.

The most blatant anarchist is always willing to accept the protection of the law who likes the liberty of property is three times.

Pastor Burgess is becoming something of a historical writer. His researches into Connellsville history were faithful and his work most commendable. His election as historian of his church's school was a proper recognition of his ability in this direction.

The funny side of life is not all invention.

The Women's Culture Club is after the chalk nuisance. The nuisance is already prohibited by law. The remedy lies in vigilance and unrelenting prosecution of the offenders.

THE ISSUE FORCIBLY PUT.

President Roosevelt puts the issue before the American people in a brief and forcible paragraph when he says:

To fail to elect Mr. Taft would be a calamity to the country, and it would be folly to think that, yet, at the same time, it is a patriotic duty to support him.

A voice is sometimes raised that says, "No, it is not a patriotic duty to support him." That is a mistake. Bryan's voice has both fortitude and inflection. It has accumulated more and more weight, but has lost him some opportunity. There is even a tinge of talking overmuch.

Theodore Roosevelt's speech is the only way in which to perpetuate the policy of the government as now carried on. If we fail to elect him, the only alternative to this policy is that the good citizen should be given the right to vote more than an acre can matter.

There are not between election dates 1861 with issues so alike by nonpartisan as at the present one. While William H. Taft is nominated by the Republicans and stands on a platform representing the policies and achievements of the party, he is predominantly the candidate of some sane, patriotic, and American citizenship prospective.

Ab Lincoln stood for the Union in 1861, backed by all Democrats who were true to the Union as well as by the Republican party, which named him, as McKinley stood on the Union in 1896, backed by men of all parties who were opposed to Bryan and partial to Bryan. Taft stands on the Union in 1908, and the candidates are in harmony with the broadest American and patriotic course that can be taken in the welfare of the community and the credit and honor of our country.

MANY TAFT DATES ARE MARKED OFF.

Candidate Must Save His Voice for Indoor Meetings.

DAY SPEECHES ELIMINATED.

Chairman Hitchcock Receives This Decision After Consultation With Candidates and His Physician—Concludes Big Day's Campaign.

New York Oct 20.—That Judge Taft's voice is in such bad condition that he will have to cancel many of his dates for speaking was indicated by Chairman Hitchcock, on his return from a conference with Mr. Taft at Newark, N. J. This means a rearrangement of Mr. Taft's itinerary, but it will not affect his dates in New York. He will be in this city as arranged.

This rearrangement will cut out all of Mr. Taft's day speeches and one of his night speeches. The latter is the speech which had been planned for Chicago next Saturday night.

It is also expected that most of Mr. Taft's dates in West Virginia will be canceled. Mr. Hitchcock is at work now on the West Virginia situation so far as Mr. Taft is concerned. The dates for Mr. Taft's speeches in Connecticut also may be canceled.

D. Richardson, the throat specialist who is traveling with Mr. Taft in view of the opinion that Mr. Taft's voice has been affected, dated by his outdoor speaking. By the time of the day speeches which were to have been made out of doors, he is believed by Dr. Richardson, that Mr. Taft will be able to meet all of his night engagements with the exception of that at Chicago.

Candidate Well and Hopeful

Mr. Hitchcock said that he never saw the candidate looking better and that Mr. Taft is more hopeful of the result than he has been at any time since the campaign began. He will be in Ohio Wednesday.

Chairman Hitchcock believes from information he has received that there is a fighting chance in Missouri for the Republican national ticket. Mr. Hitchcock expects to go to Chicago within the next few days.

General O. H. Howard of Vermont came to headquarters to volunteer to take the stump for Taft and Sherman. He was assigned to the campaign in Ohio from Oct. 22 to Oct. 27 and in Indiana from Oct. 28 to Oct. 1.

Baltimore Oct 20.—Fitting straits as his opponent with even more force than in the north west or south. Judge William H. Taft curtailed his campaign, the very doors of New York City and gave a clear indication of the character of speeches he will make in the Empire state next week.

Mr. Taft spent three hours in Newark on Sunday in Elizabeth an hour and twenty minutes in Penn on an hour in Wilmington and the entire evening in Baltimore. He encountered tremendous crowds and enthusiasm, especially during his extended efforts of the day before at Newark, Elizabeth and Baltimore. At Newark he gave attention to all the issues save labor. In his Elizabeth speech he dwelt mostly on the labor question and last night he combined the Newark and Little both speeches.

Well Received in Delaware

The zest with which Delaware received the candidate resulted in curtailing the Wilmington speech to but a few lines. The crowd in the square opposite the public building where the speakers stand stood as he finished with people that it was with the greatest difficulty that Mr. Taft was gotten through. And when he reached the stand the pressure in the throng was so great that many women and children were removed in distress. One youngster was held above the heads of the people near the stand and Mr. Taft, reaching out, grasped the boy and placed him on the stand. Mr. Taft realized and so stated that his voice was such that he could not be heard by the crowd.

I can only say to you, he remarked, that from what I have seen in New Jersey today and what I have seen in Delaware today and what I saw in the south and west in the last three weeks I am going to be elected and it would give me the greatest pride if in the election I could have the three on the same side.

The Patriotic Issue

"The real issue of the campaign is said Mr. Taft has right where you think the Repub can party by what it has done in the last twelve years, and to you confide as I feel it has done something to displease us, it is not true to be elected to the Democratic party under any circumstances. Considering the history of that party and especially the policies it has adopted to us, no more offensive expression of the line of drift of that party."

Today Mr. Taft is spending an hour in New York City, and although he will not be present at the national Democratic convention in Philadelphia, he will attend the meeting of the national Democratic committee.

St. Louis, Oct. 20.—Speaker of the House Mr. Cannon has left on a minibus in forty towns and hamlets in the state of Missouri.

Reinforcements for Campers

Washington Oct. 20.—Another step in the participation of organized labor in the political campaign was taken today when more organizations were on

PRESIDENT ORDERS BANK INVESTIGATION

Roosevelt Takes Hand In Delayed Waynesburg Case.

STIRS DILATORY OFFICIALS.

United States District Attorney Donkle Ordered to Take Up Prosecution Within Week—Case Set for January by Judge Young

Washington Oct. 20.—President Roosevelt, after holding a conference with the depositors of the First National Bank of Waynesburg, Pa., and with the U. S. attorney, instructed United States District Attorney Donkle to pursue his action to take up again a week in January the case of the First National Bank of Waynesburg, which he had dismissed in 1907.

General Wright, who was introduced as a Democrat having the honor of holding a cabinet position under the public administration, was given with enthusiasm cheering which appeared on the platform and his speech was repeatedly interrupted by cheering and applause.

The speaker entered vigorously into the principal issues of the campaign condemning Mr. Bryan in sharp terms for the latter's insistence in a recent speech of President Roosevelt is a hired man. General Wright said that such statements reflected the groundlings but made the judicious guess he then outlined the powers of the president in an endeavor to show that the president is not a hired man but the chief actor of the people.

WARS TO THE BITTER END

Cleveland Labor Leader So Declares in Bucks Case Testimony

Cleveland Oct. 20.—Robert Bradlow and other Cleveland labor leaders gave their deposition in the Washington case in which the Bucks Sewer and Range company of St. Louis seeks to have Samuel Gompers and other officers of the Federation of Labor adjudged in contempt of court for continuing to print the "We Don't Patronize List" after Justice Gould had ordered them to stop.

Bradlow is business manager of the local labor paper. The suit is said to have been initiated in after the injunction forbade the American Federation of Labor to publish it.

It is a war to the bitter end and no letup in the fight will be placed on until the trial comes to a standstill.

The National Manufacturers Association Van Cleve Post and their kind not only was on labor but they control political parties and controlled political parties and controlled political platforms and bosses nominations. Bradlow asserted.

President Harry D. Thomas and Bradlow both stated that the United Trades and I. C. O. Hall here does not depend for its existence upon the American Federation of Labor but that the federation officials would have no authority to order the publication in the local labor paper of any anti-labor statement.

Whether the federation is to be held responsible for the anti-labor statement is the question.

Mr. Bradlow said he was not asked

BRYAN THE ACCUSER.

Continues Trade by Claiming Republicans Will Buy Election

Chicago Oct. 20.—A feature of William D. Bryan's journey through his native state of Illinois was the accusation repeatedly made that the Republican party was now preparing to purchase the election. The statement first made at Alton, Ill., did not find accusation. The Democrats he said were taking only $1,000,000 with which to finish the work of the campaign while the Republicans were asking for a million.

What do they need the money for, he inquired and answering his own question he declared that it was for an election day as they have used it year in year out.

The trip to this city from Lincoln was made in St. Louis and the Democrat candidate for president, along the line of travel through this state was accented with enthusiastic demonstrations by large cycling crowds.

He delivered sixteen speeches in Illinois, but the number of considerations in a long hard day.

Roosevelt to Be an Editor

New York Oct. 20.—President Roosevelt is said to be in a position to make his return from his presidency in March next. This indicates a return to the existing contract to write the story of his African travels for Charles Scribner's Sons. His work in connection with the Outlook is to cover political and economic topics.

Croker Sends Contribution

New York Oct. 20.—The wealthy banker Richard Croker, who has given $1,000 to the national Democratic fund, has added $1,000 to his state campaign in addition to the $1,000 he has given to the national Democratic committee.

Desire Yankee Friendship.

ALL SUSPICION SEEMS UNJUST.

From Emperor to Coolie, in Reception of American Fleet, the Universal
Aim is Apparently to Prove Sincere Friendship of United States.

TOKYO, Japan, Oct. 20.—The reception accorded the American Atlantic fleet by the government and people of Japan is conceded by the American naval officer to be the prettiest and most perfectly carried out of the many receptions received by the fleet since it sailed from Hampton Roads. Rear Admiral Sperry said to the Associated Press today that he was utterly unable to say how it had been accomplished, but that the welcome given the fleet and its officers and men here has been so carefully planned and carried out to the most minute detail that a lasting impression has been stamped upon the memory of every American who has witnessed it.

The men of the American and Japanese fleets are fraternizing everywhere in Tokyo and Yokohama. Every wish of the American sailors is anticipated, and each bluejacket finds an English-speaking guide among the Japanese sailors. The American uniform is the "open sesame" everywhere, the cordiality of the Japanese extending to the inhabitants of the most remote villages. It is impossible to doubt the sincerity of the Japanese. The American sailors and sailors are already beginning to understand the fact that the evident desire on the part of Japan of friendship for America is not founded on opportunism but finds its source in a sincere wish to show that such friendship, at least on the part of the Japanese, has existed always, and that this visit of the fleet has merely afforded the Japanese an opportunity for the expression of that feeling.

There can be no doubt that the simultaneous visits of the American exposition commissioners, the Pacific coast business men and the Atlantic fleet are a part of an organized plan of the Japanese to finally wipe out all misunderstanding between Japan and America and to give the visiting Americans an insight into the real attitude of Japan toward the United States.

MORE BODIES FOUND IN WAKE OF FLAMES.

Total Death List in Michigan Reaches
Forty-Six From Forest Fires.

BAY CITY, Mich., Oct. 20.—A dispatch to the Bay City Tribune from a staff correspondent from Alpena says:

The verified known death list resulting from the forest fires in Presque Isle and Alpena counties stands at forty-one, with several persons still reported missing and a growing probability of severe loss of life in Northern Pulawski and Krakow townships in Presque Isle county, the first indication of which came with the reporting of six dead bodies in Pulawski, including those of Mrs. Herman Burke and her two children.

Two children found the skeleton of Mrs. William D. Rose living near Coquico. The woman's husband was away working and she was alone in her home, surrounded by the forest. Evidences of back firing bear mute testimony of her hopeless fight for life.

At least sixty families were living near the shore of Lake Huron in the northern half of Pulawski and Krakow townships and practically nothing has been heard from them since. It is difficult to get into this district as the country is cut up by many streams and the bridges have been burned, while fallen trees block the roads in every direction. It is said that the flames swept all through this district to the water's edge, and it is feared more bodies will be found. Chris Griger, a fisherman, escaped in an open boat bodily scorched.

At Grand Lake a farmer and wife and four children are known to have taken refuge in a boat and nothing has been heard from them since. A dozen school children sent home by teachers have not been heard from. New Poses Mr. and Mrs. Rine are still missing.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 20.—The long dry spell in the West Virginia panhandle has resulted in forest fires breaking out in Marshall county between Moundsville and Cameron and scores of farmers are fighting the flames. The fire started in Gosbom's woods, near Glen Marion, rapidly spreading in all directions. All streams are dried up and there is little or no water with which to fight the flames. At Elkins, W. Va., in the eastern section of the state, forest fires nearly burned the state Odd Fellows home.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 20.—Dense smoke fills the city, being driven in from the Ligonier valley and from Cambria and Perry counties, where small fires occurred. The smoke pall was the worst in recent years and trolley cars had to grope about as in a fog.

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 20.—Acting upon the judgment of a large number of Christian people of this city the Altoona ministerium called upon the citizens of Altoona to assemble Wednesday evening and implore Providence for relief from the drought.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 20.—Fierce fires are raging on the mountains east and north of Reading. The haze and smoke are so dense that Mount Penn is completely enveloped. On the Blue mountains a great tract has been burned over.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 20.—"Whose responsibility?" asked Miss Ellene innocently.

"Why, Alice Ruthven and Captain Selwyn. Everybody is discussing it," said Ellene, astonished. "They can't be, now can they?"

"Recognized?" I don't understand," said Ellene, astonished. "They can't be, now can they?"

"But it would be amusing, wouldn't it?" she asked, with glibness frankness. "But, of course, it is not true—that report of their reconciliation."

"Whose reconciliation?" asked Miss Ellene innocently.

"Why, Alice Ruthven and Captain Selwyn. Everybody is discussing it, you know."

"Recognized?" I don't understand," said Ellene, astonished. "They can't be, now can they?"

"But it would be amusing, wouldn't it?"

"And she could very easily get rid of Jack Ruthven. Any woman could. So if they really mean to remember—"

The girl stared. Unfeathfully, astounded, bolt upright in horse and saddle.

"Oh," she protested, while the hot blood mounted thru' her cheek, "It is wickedly untrue! How could such a thing be true, Mrs. Fane? It is—so senseless!"

Miserably uncomfortable, utterly unable to comprehend, the girl rode on in silence, her ears tingling with Rosamund's words. And I Rosamund, riding beside her, read, heard, and cynically amused, continued the theme with admiring pretense of indifference.

"It's a pity that all natured people are forever disengaging them, and it makes me indignant, because I've always been very fond of Alice Ruthven, and I am positive that she does not correspond with Captain Selwyn. A girl in her position would be crazy to sacrifice herself by doing the things they say she is doing."

"Don't, Mrs. Fane, please don't stammered Ellene. "I—I really can't listen! I simply will not! If you knew him as I do, Mrs. Fane, you would never, never have spoken as you have!"

Mrs. Fane relished neither the maturer-like nor the intimation that her own acquaintance with Selwyn was so limited, and least of all did she relish the tangled intimacy between the red-haired young girl and Captain Selwyn. "Dear Miss Ellene!" she said blandly, "I spoke as I did only to assure you that I also distained such malicious gossip."

"But if you disregard it, Mrs. Fane, why do you repeat it?"
